

Holiday Lights Contest Winners

The judges, cold and wet this year, returned their verdicts about the winners of the 6th Annual Harrison West Holiday Lights Contest. There was at least one tie, and the Committee declared this the best year ever for Holiday lights and decorations in Harrison West.

Most Exuberant There was no contest again this year for Most Exuberant. Irvin Anderson had lots of fun with his lights and his bigger-than-life-size-Santa, Snowman, and Christmas Tree this season. When they turned all of the lights on at 365 West Second Avenue, the electric meter must have been smoking!

Contemporary You always can depend on Jack Fry and Marty Kehlmeier at 382 West Fourth Avenue to decorate with the newest and hippest -- in good taste, of course! This year they hung those newly-popular glittery white stars in the tree in front of their house, as well as plenty of greenery on the fence. At night the effect was enchanting, and, well, cool.

Traditional There were several contenders for this category, but Peg Monigold's bright blue house at 1211 Harrison impressed with its profusion of wreaths, roping, lights, and decorated trees. It was fun day and night.
